

Ivory Tower

Text: Katrin Schmidt Musik: Dirk Weiß

1979

Captive in an Ivory Tower which I build myself, I have to spend the rest of my life neither seen the sun and hearing any sound.

I had to flee from fear and violence I wanna to flee from life.

Now I've reached it I'm free forever -- I must neither take and give anything.

I resisted the destruction of my dreams that are so close to reality (Dirks interpretation) and I closed the gate of my mind so that no more dream can wobble me to realizations (reality).

I wanted to hide from love to share my ego with no other one to live my life alone without disappointment.

I want to hide away from the shadow of trouble - I myself throw away the key of life.

The key to fight and defeat - but I forgot, I exclude the victory too and only yearning is the staying question.... of my heart.

Locked inside an Ivory Tower will I ever be rescued what it made to me except waiting and hoping

I resign myself to myself compassion (I feel so sorry for myself—Dirks version)

hab mich gewehrt gegen die zerstoerung meiner traume die so nah an der wirklichkeit liegen
